Description
The Devon Series: This is an outstanding chandelier re-creation from one of America's BEST Art Deco manufacturers during the depression times. Mid-West Manufacturing of Kansas City made only the best, even during the worst economic times in America. Even in the bad times, there are still folks who are clever and make money. Mid-West catered to them.

Here is the most outstanding, top-of-the-line fixture of the Devon Group, made circa 1934. Having six shades, it is just so classy. Those side slip shades were made with a strap to help hold them in position, instead of popping out too easily.

This fixture, cast by the lost wax casting process, is made from solid brass and offered in either polished, unlacquered yellow brass, antique finish, or nicely nickel plated (pictured) for just the right touch. Quality! Use the drop down menu to select your finish and choice of shades. Shades are included.

We also offer the matching sconce in the Devon series, 125-DES-X. If you need just replacement shades for an antique fixture, we sell both the slip shade, and the bottom shade.
