Description
Skyscrapers? This Art Deco revival Cityscape three panel screen can also be used as a terrific wall sculpture and give the illusion that someone's looking through a window at the New York skyline. It is made of enameled wood carved to form the scyscrapers and then enhanced with silver and gold toned paint....it is in very good vintage condition. Use your imagination and arrange it on a wall in descending panels or as a great accent piece in any room! Each panel is 82" tall x 16" wide and 1" thick. Ca. 1970's.
