Description
The very rare American art deco figural inkwell and pen holder was designed in the early 1920's by sculptor Arthur Von Frankenberg (1898 - 1992) for his company "Frankart" .The young lady has her hand around the inkwell (which has its original insert). A pen holder is in the other side. The spelter figure is finished in Frankart's original "Verde" . There is some loss to the patina on and around the inkwell but overall the piece is in great condition. It is marked on the back "© Frankart". The inkwell is 6 ¾" high, 6" wide and 4 ½" deep.
