Lurelle Guild American Art Deco Coffee Set

Reference:

MPD-002126
Description
Lurelle Guild (1898-1986) designed this rare American art deco coffee set in 1934 for the Kensington Ware Division of Alcoa Aluminum. Known as the Mayfair coffee server, cream pitcher and sugar bowl, they all had design patents granted between December 25, 1934 and January 1 1935. The number 7200 coffee servers is 10” high, the 7202 creamer is 3 ?” high and the 7203 sugar bowl is 3 ¼” high. The set is in exceptional condition and has never been used.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: ART DECO
Category: Coffee and Tea Sets

Condition: excellent

Dealer Ref: MW084

Dealer: Modernism Gallery

More InfoDesigner: Lurelle Guild
Country of Origin: United States

Modernism Gallery

- Blogs
- Shows
- News
- Shipping
- FAQ
- SiteMap
- About Us
- Terms
- Login