Description
This Belgian art deco white geometric vase was designed in 1927 in Charles Catteau's Atelier de Fantasie for Boch Freres in La Louiviere. The six sided vase has three vertical speed lines on each corner and three ledges diminishing in size on alternate panels. Sitting on a round foot, the vase rises to a stepped up round top. It measures 12" high and 8" in diameter and has the form number "1038" incised on the base and the Boch seal printed in black.
