Description
This oroginal vintage poster , created by Leonetto Cappiello and printed in 1929, is advertising a fast drying paint.In one of Cappiellos most inspired and clever designs, he provides us with visual evidence that Nitrolian truly is the fastest drying paint on the market: almost as soon as the man gets down his first coat of red, a lady in white whizzes past, the paint remaining perfectly intact. As well, the advertising poster is replicated on the can of paint in the image.. This poster is conservation mounted, linen backed, and in A condition. We have been collecting and selling original vintage posters for 30 years and we guarantee the authenticity of all of our posters.
